Passionate      Logic      Extended Know-how

From my uncommon education, my hobbies, and my various experiences, I gained a strong basis of knowledges and know-how in various fields (sciences, graphical arts, history, languages, technology, ...).

More than 12 years spent in China (2005-2007, and since 2009) allowed me to extend my perspectives and to have a very good level in Chinese language.
